

We are pleased to announce that

The Magnificent Monopostos

has been named as the "Publication of the Year" by the International Historic Motoring Awards Committee

Launched in 2011, the International Historic Motoring Awards recognise and celebrate the skills and achievements of the worldwide historic motoring industry. The event comprises 14 award categories ranging from Museum of the Year through to Motor Sport Event and Personal Achievement and are judged by an international panel of experts. The Awards dinner was held at St. Pancras Renaissance Hotel in London on 19th November.

This year's nominees for "Publication of the Year" were:

- Concours Retrospective, by Richard Adatto
- Jaguar Design – A Story of Style, by Nick Hull
- Jim Clark – Racing Hero, by Graham Gauld
- Porsche 917 – The Autobiography of 917 023, by Ian Wagstaff
- The Magnificent Monopostos: Alfa Romeo Grand Prix Cars, 1923-1951, by Simon Moore
- The Mighty MG Magnettes of 33, by Graeme Cocks
- The Road to Monaco, by Howden Ganley
- The Rolls-Royce Phantom II Continental, by André Blaize